

INSIDER

Jennifer Lopez
Proclaimed As
'Queen Of Media'

Page 3 A

HACKERS

Suspicious Of Stolen Data On Bill
Gates

Page 9 A

Q & A

Lynn Noelle Rushton
Has An Eclectic
Taste In Heroes

Section B

The Tumble Creek News

EDITION NO. 409

WEEK OF SUNDAY FEBRUARY 11, 2001

TWO SECTIONS • 25 CENTS

QUESTIONS & ANSWERS

With

Lynn Noelle Rushton

Junior Leaguer, Mom Of Toddlers, Is A Gifted Artist With Eclectic Tastes In Heroes.

By Sally Blanton

When Lynn was asked what job she would like to have for one month the answer was 'Conservator at The Prado'. She seems to have the talents, know-how and confidence to handle that sort of daunting job.

After receiving a Masters in Art History from Tulane she served as an intern at Kennedy Center and at the Smithsonian's National Museum for American Art.

She also worked at the Amen Carter Museum in Fort Worth.

She has had solo shows and won several awards and honors.

Lynn showed artistic promise at age three when she accompanied her big sister to art classes.

She gives a lot of credit to being raised in a highly creative family.

Her dad is her hero and no wonder... he assures her free time to paint by caring for her two young sons.

Continued On Page 4 B

Files For A Rate Increase

TXU Electric said it filed last week for a rate increase and surcharge that would add more than 15 percent to the average residential customer's bill, pushing it over $100 per month.

(Story On Page 7 B)

Houston Law Firm To Open Dallas Office

Martin Beirne, Managing Partner of Houston-based law firm, Beirne Maynard & Parsons announced they will open a Dallas area office effective January 2001.

(Story On Page 8 B)

IRS Executive Indicted On Charges

A former Internal Revenue Service executive who lost his CPA license in 1998 has been indicted by a federal grand jury for lying to the IRS about his legal ability to represent clients.

(Story On Page 9 B)

Nokia Layoffs Reflect Slowing Economy

Officials with Nokia Oyj, whose U.S. headquarters are in Irving, said laying off 1,500 workers in locally was a move designed to cut costs and didn't change its commitment to the region.

(Story On Page 10 B)